

THE GLOBE-REPUBLICAN.

The FORD CO. GLOBE, Established 1877.
The FORD CO. REPUBLICAN, 1895. Consolidated, 1899.

DODGE CITY, KANSAS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1900.

TWENTY-FOURTH YEAR. VOL. XXIII, NO. 47.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

The delegate convention of Republicans of Ford county met in the court house, Saturday. It was the most remarkable convention ever held in Dodge City. It was remarkable in the fact that there was utmost harmony and no strife whatever. A toboggan slide was never better fitted for its work than the conduct of the convention Saturday. Everything appeared to have been lubricated for the occasion. It seemed as though Sutton's Paramount Ointment and Fitzgerald's Imperial Balm had been generously applied. The selection of Dr. Crumline as chairman, while the doctor is not a factionist, was apparently suited. Old wounds were not opened; and while the convention was not tame or listless, it had sufficient spirit to move on briskly, and only one hour and fifteen minutes was occupied in the entire business of the convention. This means harmony and quick work in the canvass. There will be no needless wrangling, no slobbering and no unnecessary talk.

We are glad to see the brethren in such harmonious condition. "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for the brethren to dwell together in unity."

The nominations were made by acclamation.

Judge J. L. Finley is re-nominated for Probate Judge. Judge Finley has given good satisfaction in the discharge of the duties of his office. He can't be beaten.

Chas. E. Lopp was re-nominated for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Lopp is very popular among all classes of people, and he is particularly popular among the school teachers. He is an excellent Superintendent.

L. G. Grobety is nominated for County Attorney. Mr. Grobety is not a practicing attorney, but his ability, education and natural adaptability to business will equip him for the office. He is not a necessity, for he has a legal learning. He was District Clerk for two years.

J. C. Baird, the candidate for District Clerk, is qualified in whatever place of trust he is placed, whether as a farmer or in the railroad office, in the editorial chair, or wherever fortune places him, he is readily equipped and easily adapted. Everybody is for Joe.

R. W. Evans, the nominee for Representative has held the office of County Treasurer, Mayor and Postmaster, and has been found faithful and trustworthy. As a member of the Legislature he will look after Ford county's interest. He is popular with the people, and he is believed to be the strongest man which could have been nominated.

H. R. Brown, the candidate for County Commissioner, is re-nominated for the second term. He represents the second district, composed of the city wards. Mr. Brown is one of the most economical commissioners the county ever had, and he zealously guards the finances and expenditures of the county. Mr. Brown is popular with all classes of people.

The ticket fairly represents every interest. The old settlers and the old soldiers should be proud of the ticket. Business men and citizens generally endorse the selection, and Republicans particularly will support the ticket.

It is fortunate that the Republicans so long lacking in entire harmony should get down to a solid basis and unitedly select and harmoniously endorse a county ticket composed of some of the best men of the county. There was the best of feeling in the convention and the best natured feeling after the convention. The good nature prompted the suggestion, that after the convention, Mike Sutton and Billy Fitzgerald met in one of the court rooms and danced a jig, while Chalk Beeson patted juber, and Geo. Grobety sang "There'll be a hot time in the old town tonight."

Committee on resolutions made following report, which was adopted unanimously:

We, your committee on resolutions beg leave to submit the following report: 1st. We cordially endorse the statesman-like and American administration of President McKinley as the redemption of pre-election promises and the fulfillment of pre-election predictions. And as the pride of all right-thinking men it will be known as an epoch in the country's history honored while the Republic is revered. And we confidently predict the re-election of President McKinley, and the election of that gallant soldier and upright, fearless statesman, Theodore Roosevelt.

2nd. Senator Lucien Baker is deserving the grateful recognition of the people of Kansas for his unswerving fidelity to the trust imposed on him; and the Republicans of Ford county acknowledge their confidence in him, and take this occasion to commend his course in the Senate of the United States.

3rd. We recognize in the Hon. Chester T. Long a capable and faithful representative, whose ability has placed him among the leaders of our national council and his recognition on the ways and means committee was a just tribute to his sterling worth and a compliment to the Republicans of Kansas.

4th. We hereby cheerfully approve our entire state administration for the clean, able and patriotic manner of conducting public affairs without a single scandal. And reposing special confidence in the integrity, experience and independence of the Hon. W. E. Stanley, who has signally disregarded and risen above partisan favoritism in the discharge of the responsible duties of governor of our commonwealth, we cordially commend him to the further suffrage of the people of Kansas for a second term in the same high trust.

5th. We recognize our debt of gratitude to the brave and fearless defenders of our country, and favor just and liberal pensions to our soldiers and sailors, and prompt and considerate action on the part of the departments in their behalf.

6th. Grave questions of public concern are apparent in the new conditions growing out of trusts and monopolies and the proper treatment of our island territories. And we turn confidently to the Republican party for their proper solution as the only great political party which has in the past shown an aptitude to solve such problems satisfactorily to the American people.

7th. Resolved that in the death of ex-Senator John J. Ingalls we recognize the loss of a man who was distinguished in every department of state, whether at the bar, bench or forum. That we recognize his distinguished services as Senator from Kansas; and that his death is mourned alike by State and Nation. In half a century Ingalls wrote in prose, verse, history, philosophy, romance and satire, and while his writings have enriched our fund of knowledge, they have found a place in classical literature. But it is his ability as a Senator and statesman we owe our highest regard; and nowhere was he more highly respected than in the ranks of the Republican party. His death is regretted by men of all shades of political opinion; by men who admired his sterling integrity and strong intellectuality.

8th. Be it further resolved, by this convention, that Judge E. H. Madison is hereby authorized and instructed to select and name such persons as he may desire as delegates to the Judicial Convention of the 31st Judicial District to be held at Bucklin on the 10th day of September, 1900, and report the names of such delegates to the Chairman and Secretary of the County Central Committee, who are hereby authorized to deliver to them proper credentials.

We respectfully submit that the temporary organization be made permanent.

Stands Without a Rival.

Mr. Jno. N. Wilkie of 36 Adams Ave., West, Detroit, Michigan, writes: "I have been troubled with a very severe headache for years and have taken a great many different remedies, but have never found anything to give me as speedy and permanent a cure as Krause's Headache Capsules. In my opinion they stand without a rival; they have cured me every time. Sold by W. F. Pine."

A woman in Pennsylvania was helping her husband haul hay and was watching it in her arms as he threw it up, and in one armful caught a rattlesnake, but saw it in time to get away. In the next armful another snake was caught by her and this time she had to fight for her life. The loud rattling of the snake frightened the team and they ran away, throwing her and the snake down behind the horses, the wagon running over them killing the snake, and injuring the woman fatally. This is a true snake story.

to use Foley's Kidney Cure in time. If taken in earlier stages of Bright's disease and diabetes, it is a certain cure. You have noticed the high death rate from these diseases, and it is not wise to ignore early symptoms when a medicine like Foley's Kidney Cure can be had. W. S. Amos.

THEY KNOW THE GAME.

(Ottawa Herald.)

A good deal has been said in the papers lately about the easy work which the eastern grafter is to find when he comes into Kansas this fall with his shells and his pens and his gilded brick and his other trusted devices for divorcing fools from their money.

If the grafter is wise he will reserve the price of a return trip ticket from the store with which he starts from home. Kansas people have money—they also have experience. Nowhere else on earth is the flim-flam game such an intimate acquaintance as it is in Kansas. The people have been there. They have chased the pea under the shell in all manner of ways. They have gone deeply into gold brick investments financially and politically and have been compelled to balance their accounts with experience.

The remains of once prosperous townships out among the cattle ranges of the west, cornered that were once sugar factories, bonds that stand for this or that disappointment, are each and every one evidences of Kansas faith and coin, staked and lost upon the location of the elusive pea. The shams of the "first Populist government on earth" which have twice exposed from under the outer covering of gilded promises are evidences of Kansas confidence broken up forever in a twice repeated investment in the political gold brick. The statement is not especially new, but it is as true as it ever was, maybe more. Kansas people have "been against the game." They have bucked it in its varying forms, good and hard, and have lost. They have settled down to business and have won. They have money for everything that is legitimate, and perhaps for some things that are questionable. But there is no great Klondike of wealth waiting to be tapped by the man with the "con" proposition.

The singed cat takes his recreation in some other way than in monkeying with flame. That's Kansas.

Kansas money is going into new barns and houses this fall. Some of it is tied up in the farm alongside the farm that has made the money this year. A good deal of it is stacked across the corner of the parlor, bearing the name of the best piano house in the country. A lot more of the money is rolling across the prairies in handsome new buggies. Some of it has gone for better clothes than has ever come into Kansas before. It is spent for scholarships in universities and for trips to Paris. It has gone for gold filling in the front teeth and for good books in the front room. It is going for every good thing that money can buy, including bank stock, mortgages on eastern real estate and Belgian hares. It is going for sheds for the machinery that used to stand out to show where the work stopped. It is going slowly and judiciously. The man who has done well in Kansas this year will take his son to the department of the fairs at the county fair and introduce an old friend of his earlier Kansas life. Then he will go and inspect the fat stock and have his newspaper subscription set forward another twelve-month.

Best Way to Cure Backache.

Backaches are caused by disorder in the kidneys. Foley's Kidney Cure will make the kidneys right. Take no substitute. W. S. Amos.

Miss Barber comes 300, Miss Smith 375 and Miss LeMaster 1,000 miles, and will all be strangers far from home. They come to be workers in the greatest field of the church. They will all need and will no doubt receive a most cordial welcome from the good people of Dodge City as well as the students and their friends.

Mrs. Gilbert will teach voice culture, and is well and favorably known in this and neighboring towns for her ability and success as a teacher. Mrs. Gilbert is a thorough musician, having been educated in the College of Music, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Will Vote for McKinley!

I am told that a number of cattlemen, who are democrats, of this county are going to vote for Major McKinley, and they give as a reason that the money of the country is in the hands of the republicans, and that if Mr. Bryan is elected, cattlemen cannot borrow any money.

Now this is a question that is of some importance. Think of the condition of a man who fears to vote his honest political convictions, for fear of the precipitation of the displeasure of the opposite political party, which would deprive him of the necessities of life, and you will at once perceive a dangerous social condition. These men do not favor the policy of the administration, but fear it. They are not free.—Ashland Clipper.

The cattlemen will vote their honest convictions.

Question Answered

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Palace Drug Co.
